Trustee Jester Announces Resignation

Village of Deerfield Trustee Thomas “Tom” Jester has submitted his resignation to Mayor Daniel C. Shapiro. Jester has been a Deerfield resident since 1976 and served 15 years on the Village Board, with one year remaining in his fourth term. Jester is a former engineer and serves as a founding committee member on the Farmers Market Committee.

“It has been my privilege to serve the Village as have the many women and men who preceded me. I am pleased to have contributed to several advances over the years,” Jester said.

Mayor Shapiro noted that Jester’s breadth of experience helped the Village Board make more informed decisions.

“I cannot say enough about Tom and his incredible service to our Village. His experience and background allowed him to make valuable and thoughtful contributions to our Board for many years. We are very thankful to Tom. He will be missed,” Mayor Shapiro said.
