

ARTICLE 12

PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENTS AND PLANNED RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENTS

12.00 PREAMBLE

12.00-A Intent (Ord. 0-82-10)

The intent of this Article is to permit and encourage a more creative, imaginative and desirable approach to certain residential, commercial and industrial developments than is generally possible under conventional zoning regulations. By allowing a greater flexibility of project design and by supporting the union or planning and development, these regulations seek to enhance the character of the Village in accordance with the Village's goals as set forth in the Comprehensive Plan. The flexibility permitted by these regulations shall be utilized as a means to achieve a modern, safe, efficient and visually appealing community, not simply as a means to attract development or to circumvent the intent and purposes of this Ordinance.

It is also the intent of this Article to continue to permit Planned Residential Developments in that area bounded by Lake Cook Road, Wilmot Road, Hackberry Road and Willow Avenue. A planned residential development in this area is the use and development for single-family detached residential purposes of a compact and contiguous parcel or tract of land under single ownership, or if the ownership is diverse, then under unified control pursuant to an agreement of such owners. This parcel or tract shall have sufficient area to permit its development in accordance with an orderly plan with due allowance for the similar development of adjoining properties, and in accordance with the regulations and conditions prescribed in this Article.

Additionally, it is the intent of this Article to permit and encourage the redevelopment of those properties lying between the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad right-of-way and Waukegan Road, which properties front on the west side of Hoffman Lane, on Osterman Avenue, on Waverly Court or on Central Avenue. A Village Center/Residential Planned Unit Development in this area is for the use and development of multiple-family dwellings. Also, a Village Center/Commercial Planned Unit Development is restricted to those properties fronting on the west side of Hoffman Lane or on the north side of Osterman Avenue between Waukegan Road on the east and the right-of-way of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad on the west. The Village Center/Commercial Planned Unit Development in this area is for the use and development of those properties for office uses or for mixed use structures containing a combination of office uses, commercial uses and/or multiple-family dwellings.

12.00-B Objectives

The Planned Unit Development procedure has the following among its objectives:

1. Flexibility and Variety
To promote flexibility in design and permit planned variety in the type and location of structure and uses.
2. Efficiency and Economy
To promote the efficient use of land to facilitate a more economic arrangement of buildings, parking, circulation systems and utilities.
3. Site Character
To provide a procedure which can relate the type, design and layout of residential, commercial and industrial development to the particular site, thereby encouraging preservation to the greatest extent possible of the site's natural character, its landscape and topography.
4. Open Space and Amenities
To provide for more usable and suitably located recreational facilities and open space and other public and common facilities than would otherwise be provided under the strict application of conventional zoning.
5. Assurances
To assure the Village, and future occupants and future owners of Planned Unit Developments that the amenities, circulation systems, utilities, and other components of the approved plan including those usually provided as public improvements will be established in accordance with the approved final development plan and with other requirements placed on the Planned Unit Development.

12.01 GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.01-A Planned Unit Development As Special Use

Planned Unit Development may be approved and authorized by Ordinance as a Special Use in R-5, General Residence District and in all Commercial and Industrial Districts in accordance with the standards and procedures of this Article.

12.01-B Applicable Regulations

1. Exceptions (Ord. O-85-09)

A Planned Unit Development shall be governed by the regulations of the zoning district or districts in which it is located, except as provided in this Article and as modified by and authorized in the Ordinance approving the Planned Unit Development. Said Ordinance may provide for such exceptions from the District regulations governing setbacks, lot width, height, parking and subdivision design standards as may be desirable to achieve the objectives of the proposed Planned Unit Development, provided such exceptions are consistent with the standards and criteria contained in this Article.

2. Improvements (Ord. 0-93-53)

In order to achieve the goals and objectives of the Planned Unit Development and the Village of Deerfield, the Village may determine that the best interests of the Village are served by permitting the provision of certain improvements as private rather than public improvements. It may also be determined that such improvements should be permitted at less than those specifications set out in the Zoning Ordinance, Deerfield Subdivision Code or the Municipal Code of Deerfield. Such exceptions shall be permitted at the discretion of the Corporate Authorities. The Corporate Authorities shall also determine the extent to which such improvements will be publicly owned and maintained. Such improvements shall include but shall not be limited to streets, sidewalks, street lights, fire hydrants, utility lines, and landscaping. The Corporate Authorities shall require the establishment of funds in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.09 and the Municipal Code to guarantee the establishment and completion of all improvements, whether private or public, as approved in the final development plan.

Additionally, improvements other than those listed above which are approved as part of the final development plan shall be deemed to be included as private improvements and governed by Article 12.01-G. Such improvements may include landscaping, fencing, and site amenities. The Corporate Authorities may grant exceptions to these requirements.

3. Subdivision or Resubdivision (Ord. 0-88-54)

Furthermore, in those Planned Unit Developments where the subdivision or resubdivision of the subject property is desired, said subdivision and resubdivision may be granted although the lots so created do not each meet all of the Village's requirements as found in the Zoning Ordinance, Subdivision Code, or Municipal Code.

Such subdivision or resubdivision shall only be approved if the purpose for creating said subdivision or resubdivision is to reflect the differing ownership of the lots within the Planned Unit Development. Said subdivision or resubdivision will not create any rights not specifically permitted by the ordinance establishing the Planned Unit Development. If any changes to the governing Planned Unit Development are desired, i.e. provision of fencing, such changes may only be made upon the recommendation of the Plan Commission following a public hearing and approval of the Board of Trustees. Any lots in said subdivision or resubdivision which will be reserved for the use and/or benefit of all of the owners of lots within the PUD shall be clearly marked accordingly on the subdivision or resubdivision plat along with any additional language which the Village deems appropriate to indicate the use for which the lots are reserved and also that said lots do not constitute a "lot of record" as that term is defined by either the Zoning Ordinance or Subdivision Code and further that the only improvement which will be permitted on said lot is that which is authorized by the governing Planned Unit Development Ordinance. If, after the adoption and recording of the Planned Unit Development Ordinance and subdivision or resubdivision plat, no substantial construction has begun or no use has been established in the Planned Unit Development within the time stated in the development schedule contained in the Final Development Plan thereby causing the Special Use to expire, the Village Board may automatically vacate the subdivision or resubdivision plat.

12.01-C Effect of Approval

1. Approval of a Planned Unit Development for a tract of land shall not affect the rights of the property owner or owners to develop the property in conformance with the provisions of the underlying zoning district.
2. However, when a Planned Unit Development has been granted and conditions and guarantees imposed, as hereinafter provided, and site development of such Planned Unit Development has commenced:
  - a. The rights of the property owner or owners to develop the property in conformance with the provisions of the underlying zoning district are forfeit, and there shall be the obligation to complete the Planned Unit Development as set forth on the Final Development Plan and related regulations approved as part of the Ordinance granting the Planned Unit Development, or
  - b. A new Final Development plan shall be required for any further development of the site.

12.01-D Coordination with Subdivision Ordinance

When any Planned Unit Development requires the subdivision or resubdivision of land, the review of the proposed subdivision or resubdivision under the Subdivision Ordinance of the Village of Deerfield shall proceed simultaneously with the review of the Planned Unit Development under this Zoning Ordinance.

In order to promote the goals and objectives of the Village's Comprehensive Plan, certain development incentive provisions are established for the area formed by those properties lying between the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific Railroad right-of-way and Waukegan Road, which properties front on the west side of Hoffman Lane, on Osterman, on Waverly Court, or on Central Avenue. Those provisions are established to further the following specific purposes:

1. To provide an incentive for the redevelopment of this area utilizing the Village Center/Residential PUD procedures for the use and development of multi-family dwellings.
2. To provide for the redevelopment of the area formed by those properties between the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific Railroad right-of-way and Waukegan Road, which properties front on the west side of Hoffman Lane, or on the north side of Osterman utilizing the Village Center/Commercial Planned Unit Development procedures for the use and development of those properties for any office uses and for mixed use structures containing office uses and multi-family dwellings.

In furthering the above, three specific categories of public amenities will be considered in determining the amount of development incentives to be given:

1. Open space amenities which could include wider setbacks than those required, public plazas and parks, enclosed parking, or other items which would serve to increase the amount and quality of useable open space in a particular development.

Use amenities which include developing properties with those uses designated in the Village's Comprehensive Plan and specifically developing a lot as part of the development, which lot by reason of its location between other parcels under common ownership, would otherwise be rendered undevelopable.

2. The direct construction cost of the amenity.
