Old Business

a. Wristband Sales

Co-Chair Butera informed the Commission that she reached out to the Optimist Club to recruit volunteers to sell wristbands on July 4th. The Optimist Club will send volunteers as in past years. Co-Chair Geuder has reached out to the Historical Society to also recruit volunteers but has not heard back yet.

b. Post Card Design

Liaison Keenan showed the latest draft of the post card to the Commission. He stated that the due date for the post card to send to the printers is June 1st to ensure on time delivery.

Committee Reports

1. Food Vendors

Commissioner Shallman commented that he had multiple vendors confirmed including Mario Cart, My Funnel Truck and Judy's Pizza. Fallot Shallot was tentative for July 4th. He has also reached out to numerous other vendors and is waiting to hear back.

2. Arts & Crafts

Commissioner Cervarich relayed to the Commission that he has sent out the application form to previous participants and has 8 vendors already signed up.

Other Items for Consideration

Commissioner Bettiker will reach out to the American Legion to find volunteers to sing the national anthem and raise the American Flag on July 3rd at 7pm before the fireworks.

Liaison Keenan relayed to the Commission that the porta potty pricing from Pit Stop has dramatically increased and now costs $5,000. However, they are still cheaper than Waste Management.
