

DEERFIELD POLICE DEPARTMENT

Semi-Annual Report
2020

Kent Street, Village Manager:

On behalf of the men and women of the Deerfield Police Department, I am pleased to submit the Semi-Annual Report for 2020. This working document provides an overview of the traffic and criminal activity the Department has encountered during the first six months of the year. This report also describes the actions taken by our police officers to improve the quality of life in Deerfield.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you, the Mayor and Board of Trustees, for your dedicated support of our professional and policing efforts.

Respectfully,

John J. Sliozis
Chief of Police

Thomas M. Keane
Deputy Chief of Administration

John J. Sliozis
Chief of Police

Brian J. Budny
Deputy Chief of Patrol

Mission & Values

Mission Statement

With respect and dignity, the Deerfield Police Department will provide professional and ethical service through partnership with citizens and proactively identifying risks to Deerfield's quality of life.

The Police Department has identified nine continuing goals that help accomplish this mission:

- Prevention of crime
- Apprehension of offenders
- Recovery and return of property
- Safe movement of traffic
- Provision of services unavailable from other public and private welfare agencies
- Prevention of substance abuse in the community
- Education of juveniles, informing them of their legal responsibilities
- Education of the public in the steps it can take to reduce the probabilities of becoming the victim of criminal attack
- Participation in the implementation of disaster and disorder services

Values

Core values guide and inform all of an organization's interactions and reflect assumptions about the agency's identity. A basic understanding of Deerfield Police Department's values ensures that each staff member is clear on the ideals needed to achieve goals and objectives.

The Deerfield Police Department has identified the following values:

Professionalism in day-to-day activities of law enforcement and serving the community

A community that is safe for its residents and visitors.

A balance of service, training, career development, and personal time that provides staff with the opportunity for success at the work place and home

Human rights that are the foundation of the country and society

Calls for Service

“Calls for Service” is a term used by police to describe the activity generated by crime complaints, requests for service, and other police workload which cannot be categorized as either (A) inspectional service; (B) routine patrol activity; (C) administrative activity; (D) time out of service, such as meals, or (E) workload generated directly by the police officer, such as traffic or parking citations.

Calls for Service relate to almost every facet of the police operation. They include the investigation of miscellaneous complaints, the investigation of traffic collisions, the preliminary investigation of crimes, and a myriad of other services provided to the general public.

From January 1, 2020 until June 30, 2020, the department received a total of 5,807 calls for service that received incident numbers. These calls include 911 calls, traffic stops, and other public service requests.
