Portillo Restaurant Group Planning Deerfield Location

Portillo's has announced plans to open a Deerfield location within the next 12 months at 700 Lake Cook Road on the former On the Border site. Restaurant representatives will meet with the Appearance Review Commission Monday, March 14, and are scheduled to go before the Plan Commission on March 24.

In response to the announcement, Village of Deerfield Mayor Harriet Rosenthal released the following statement:

"I am very pleased to announce that Portillo's is moving forward with establishing a Deerfield location. We have worked together and maintained an open dialogue for more than two years and we are excited for the review process to begin. I look forward to Portillo's becoming a great, new corporate citizen in the Village of Deerfield."
